THINKING OF YOU week

Mail a card for free for Thinking of You Week at BookCon!

(April 18, 2019) Thinking of You Week returns in 2019 from September 23-29, celebrating the joys of sending and receiving greeting cards, and inviting everyone to send a card a day for a week, just because. Sponsored by the Greeting Card Association, the initiative is supported by the USPS with a “Thinking of You” postmark throughout the month of September.

Mail a greeting card for free in the Thinking of You Week booth UnBound, 2839 - 2938.

The booth will feature a card sending station plus envelope decoration supplies, with free postage available.

Winning artist Elizabeth Silver will be available Saturday 1-3pm and Sunday 11am-1pm to hand letter and decorate envelopes!

Snapshots and video will capture card sending moments to help promote Thinking of You Week on social media.

Use #thinkingofyouweek and join the snail mail revolution!
