

BookCon

High Risk Activities

- All high-risk activities not prohibited by other sections of these regulations require approval of Center management at least 30 days in advance.
- Such activities include but are not limited to motorized sporting events, acrobatic stunts, mechanical amusement devices and audience participation in athletic activities.