

BookCon 2026 & Housing Works Donation Partner

Housing Works is a federal registered 501c3 charity. We will provide a complimentary pick up and tax donation receipt to your company for your donation items from BookCon 2026. Books and accessories are accepted.

Thank you for making a difference! Proceeds from the sale of your donation items will enable Housing Works to provide lifesaving services: healthcare, housing and legal advocacy to thousands New Yorker's living with and affected by HIV/AIDS and homelessness and to promote our nationwide mission outreach efforts. Your generous donations help make our mission a reality, thank you.

We do not have a minimum of number of boxes – we welcome all donations, thank you!

While we will have both packing assistance and supplies on hand, we appreciate your arrangement of packing items after the show close.

*Donation labels for your boxes will be available to pick up from your Floor Manager. Boxes without the label may be mistaken for trash so please be sure to label in a highly visible location.

Please contact Donation Coordinator with any questions and for assistance:
